

- Extreme thirst
- Frequent urination, especially at night
- Unexplained weight loss
- Blurred vision
- Fatigue
- Persistent cough that doesn't go away
- Chest pain that worsens with deep breathing, coughing, or laughing
- Hoarseness
- Shortness of breath
- Coughing up blood or rust-colored sputum
- Red, painful, and swollen gums
- Gums that bleed easily when brushing or flossing
- Receding gums
- Persistent bad breath
- Sudden, severe pain in a joint—often the big toe
- Joint that feels hot, inflamed, and is extremely tender
- Lingering discomfort after the severe pain subsides
- Red, shiny skin over the affected joint
- Difficulty falling or staying asleep
- Irritability or a low mood
- Difficulty concentrating or remembering things
- Increased errors or accidents
- Constant yawning or feeling groggy upon waking
- Itching that worsens at night
- A rash with tiny blisters or bumps, especially between the fingers, on wrists, or elbows
- Sores caused by scratching
- Thin, burrow tracks on the skin that look like raised, crooked lines
- Abdominal bloating and distension
- Excessive gas and flatulence
- Diarrhea or constipation
- Stomach rumbling or gurgling
- A feeling of fullness or pressure in the abdomen